

As Italy's energy mix is increasingly composed of variable renewable energy sources, electricity storage will be needed to integrate power generated by renewables into the ...

The Italian energy transition is widely affected by multi-level dynamics. The impact of these dynamics, however, is ambiguous. As in France, direct state intervention in industrial policy (e.g. through ownership and ...

Italy is becoming less dependent on external energy sources, with its energy dependence level improving slightly from 77% to 74%. This year, the country achieved a ...

The aim of this paper is to identify a cost-optimal path for the decarbonisation of the Italian energy system and to assess how renewable cost forecasts may influence the ...

Long-duration energy storage (LDES) is a key resource in enabling zero-emissions electricity grids but its role within different types of grids is not well understood. Using the Switch capacity ...
